My child attends Sticks n Stones before and after school. Me and my partner would struggle to find alternative care for our child if the setting closed as there is a lack of other provisions in the area. My younger child is due to start here later this year. If this wasn't possible we would struggle getting both children to a care setting for the same time. We would have to do additional traveling costing more in fuel and time. The company is amazing with my child and he really loves attending. There is a shortage of childcare settings in the area and the company provides amazing opportunities for younger people looking to work in childcare of which there is a shortage of especially in our area. We would really be lost without sticks n stones! What an amazing business!
