

Terms of Entry for Concerts in the Park 2009

These terms of entry apply to:

Songs in the Park, Saturday 22nd August
&
Party in the Park, Sunday 23rd August

Both events are in Crow Nest Park, Dewsbury

By attending Concerts in the Park, you agree to abide by the following Terms of Entry. Failure to comply with these terms could result in ejection from the site.

The following items may NOT be brought onto the site. If you are found with these items in the park you will be ejected:

- No glass
- No dangerous objects or weapons
- No illegal substances
- No barbeques
- No tents
- No gazebos
- No dogs (except guide dogs)

In addition:

- There is to be no filming of the concert
- The distribution of leaflets is not permitted
- There is no camping in the park overnight, anyone found in the park when it is closed will be removed by security staff
- Under 18's are not permitted to consume alcohol on the premises, under 21s will be asked for identification at the bar

By entering this park, you are giving your consent to be searched by security staff