

Pennine Yorkshire

 Railway with station
 Motorway

UK

getting here

by road
The M62 crosses the north of the district, the M62 connects with the M1, M6 and A1.

by rail
Huddersfield and Dewsbury are mainly served by the York-Leeds-Manchester-Liverpool trans-pennine line. Connection to the main inter-city east and west coast routes are also available from Leeds, Wakefield and Manchester, including links to London.
National Rail 08457 484950 www.nationalrail.co.uk

by air
Leeds/Bradford and Manchester International airports have domestic and international scheduled routes. A direct rail service links Manchester Airport to Huddersfield and Dewsbury stations.
Manchester Airport 0161 489 3000 www.manchesterairport.co.uk
Leeds/Bradford Airport 0113 250 9696 www.lbia.co.uk

getting around
A range of tickets and passes are available for buses and trains.
Metro 01132457676 www.wymetro.com

National Express
Huddersfield is served by National Express Coaches.
08705 808080 www.nationalexpress.com