Before I go to Kirklees Local Studies Library

I'm going to Kirklees Local Studies Library in Huddersfield.

About Kirklees Local Studies Library

There are people who work at Kirklees Local Studies Library who I can talk to.

Kirklees Local Studies Library is a place where people come for research on the local area.

How do I make an enquiry at Kirklees Local Studies Library?

When I get to Kirklees Local Studies Library I will see a desk.

I will talk to a member of staff to help me with my enquiry.

When I visit Kirklees Local Studies Library

In Kirklees Local Studies Library there will be books to browse.

I can sit on a chair to read a book.

I can sit at a larger study area too.

If I want to look at information on a certain topic, I will talk to a member of staff.

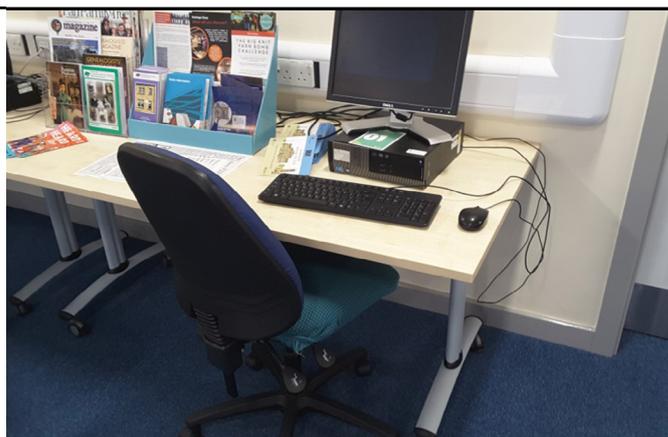

I can look at old books, photographs and maps by asking a member of staff.

I can also read old newspapers on Microfiche readers by asking a member of staff.

To access Ancestry on a computer, I will need to talk to a member of staff.

There are toilets and baby changing facilities I can use in Kirklees Local Studies Library.

I can visit Kirklees Transcription Service

I can visit Kirklees Transcription Service if reading something in standard print is difficult for me.

I can visit West Yorkshire Archive Service

I can make an appointment with West Yorkshire Archive Service if I want access to original documents, maps, etcetera.

When I have finished

When I have finished, I will leave Kirklees Local Studies Library.
