In order for us to consider your application, you must pay the correct fee. You must pay the consideration of application fee when submitting your application. Following inspection, a risk rating is completed which determines the length of your licence and therefore the actual licence cost, which must be paid before your licence is issued. We accept payment by phone, please contact us on 01484 221000 ext 70671 to make your licence payment. Otherwise cheques should be made payable to Kirklees Council.

Applications can be returned by post to: FREE POST, Kirklees Council, Environmental Health or emailed to animal.health@kirklees.gov.uk

Please Note: New applications will always be rated as high risk as there is no compliance history to take into consideration.
