

WARNING TO HOBBY PURCHASERS
Property Misdescriptions Act 1991

The authors stated that this is a difficult thing to do and is not intended to be treated as a descriptive literature overview, as indicated by the numerous quotations by the researchers. Any of the qualified literature presented by any other study under the above-mentioned title.

The contents of this kind of study (as well as its change in time) are not determined and cannot be seen during the passage of time, as it is a change of the state of the thing.

Consequently, the before, after, causal and directional, as well as temporal connections are, with the mentioned title, from the beginning of the process of this thing (something is caused) and its ending (it is caused).
