The fact that there was previously a pub on this site is now irrelevant, and the improved pathways and access to walk around this historic and iconic site are all that are needed for Castle Hill to retain its unique status. The extra traffic generated ,plus the design of the proposed building will ruin this important landmark. Added to which local wildlife eg. birds like the twite that are endangered and have been nesting nearby will be threatened. Leave Castle Hill with its Jubilee tower and natural surroundings unspoilt .
