

Trimming the branch at the arrow point as highlighted would mean the tree will grow back to its original condition and we are not trimming too much of the tree out because we will mostly be on the left side of the road for the delivery that already has a better height.

The growing point that we would trim/cut.