| This building is a local landmark and site of historical significance. Not just for the area but for the country. Remembering the industrial revolution and the luddites is a significant part of our history. It wouldnt be too bad if the building was converted into a dwelling itself but most of the beautiful historical buildings on that side of the road are already gone. It would be a really bad decision to remove the Shears. Sometimes historical significance needs to over ride profit. |
