This building should remain as is, it has a direct historical influence on the area. The Luddites are widely known to have meetings from this location and as such the current building is very much a part of our architectural history. The area is already over developed and I believe that we need to try to retain every historical building that we have left. The idea to demolish, what in my opinion, should be a listed building is not only abhorrent but diabolical!!
