The building is historical and is part of the Luddite campaign, and is in many pieces of literature. The building serves the local community. The building has character and is used as a point of reference for walkers. I was told that the building or part of was listed. It originally had a connection with the detached house over the road, as there was a connecting tunnel in years gone by, as the house opposite was called The White Hart. Please do not destroy
