| This building is important not only to the history of the local area but also nationally. It was the site of Luddite meetings at the time of the industrial revolution. The building should remain if not viable as a pub it should be redeveloped without being demolished. To demolish it would be a detriment to the local area and add a greater volume of cars, an average of 2 cars per household, on a road that is too small to cope already. This will effect noise and pollution within the local area. |
