Never been bothered before but furious over this application. Not because I used to drink there or know people. But because I was repeatedly taught at school the importance of this building and the significance that the meeting of the luddites had in shaping not only the socio-economic landscape of the time but that of many years to come. I understand that things change and there is more need for housing than a less desirable and less socially acceptable pub. I truest believe that a quick £ has been put before a genuine requirement 4 overpriced houses are not equal to what would be lost. I would rather it be converted to a restaurant as has happened to so many less significant drinking establishments
