| The Shears Inn has an important historic role in the political and social heritage of the Spenn Valley area. As the epicentre of the Luddite uprisings of 1811-12, the public house features in many heritage trails, books, websites locally and nationally and as such has a role to encourage tourism to the area and promote local spend. We are in danger of fast losing our heritage and local identity and would like to see this building saved as an Asset of Community Value and/or be registered on a Local Heritage Asset List |
