The Luddite Riots of 1812 are known of all over the world and this building, The Shears Inn, played a part in those momentous events. The demolition of this building is, in my view, detrimental to the culture and heritage of the district. It is all too easy to demolish a building of historical value for that decision to be regretted by future generations. This building is complemented by the Luddite memorial in nearby Sparrow Park which only reinforces the need to preserve the Shears for future generations. I strongly object to the proposed demolition.
