Anyone with any ounce of common sense can see that Owl Lane can't cope with any more traffic, the queue to the roundabout at the Ossett end is the full length every week day night. Not to mention the numerous accidents - not minor bumps full scale car wreckers. The land being proposed for building has a culvert at the bottom, what happens to this and the rats that call it home. There are also other wildlife to take in to consideration bats, foxes, hares to name but a few. What happens in a Sunday when it's car boot, or when Dewsbury are at home - absolute carnage that's what
