I am a regular user of this mosque. I do not see any activity within the mosque which goes against the public interest. I have been made aware of the legal eviction notice given to current tenant (shop) but mosque being the landlord they can legally ask tenants to leave. I have heard from others that tenants have spread lots of rumors about the people who run the mosque. I have also been told by parents that the tenant regularly speaks to students and encourages them to have a bad behaviour in the mosque. I mean, why would you do that? My child studies at mosque and i cannot be more prouder of the teachers and the organisers and the head teacher, who gives more than they should to make my child a better muslim. So i feel the mosque should be given the permission to build so they provide a better education for children to make their lives better.
