objection, things are getting out of hand, everyone local is against this. people are getting together from other towns defending the shop. what is going on. How was this even considered? the mosques own permission is not passed and they have applied for a community centre, for who? the whole community is against the mosque and the committee even the muslims. but yet they have no regard for our community and what we want. The council should take this seriously as things will really get out of hand and it will be very difficult to control. This is not just about the shop or putting them out of business this is about the whole community. if you take the shop away from us who will be responsible for the reaction?
