To whom it may concern, why would you need a prayer facility setting up in a old post office shop that has no available parking facilities for shop customers, never mind the ridiculous amounts of vehicles this conversion will bring. The parking on wakefield crescent at the moment is hardly sufficient for the residents. Also what time would this facility be used and by whom.? Would the building be altered in any way. Shouldn't kirklees be looking to get some sort of shops/business back on wakefield road rather than even contemplating putting a mosque on the main thoroughfare to and from Dewsbury. In closing myself my family and neighbours strongly disagree with this proposal
