As there is only pedestrian access to this where will people park? In todays society everyone drives short distances, this will clog up already over used side roads such and getting out onto Wakefield Road is already hazardous on a busy week day. Already employees of tesco petrol station park their cars opposite on side roads on the pavements as they are narrow that makes it difficult and dangerous for disabled pedestrians, wheel chair user's and parents with babies in prams having to divert around parked cars especially on the pavement.
