Good evening. With regards to the proposed renovation to the old newsagents (Wakefield Road, Earlsheaton) to a prayer room, I along with many other members of Earlsheaton aren't happy about it at all. I have just recently bought a house and I already now struggle to park my car outside my own property. Parking is limited as it is and with a new prayer room straight opposite, it is going to make parking even more difficult not only for me but for other locals, many on my street that are elderly too. Wakefield road is a busy main road especially at peak times. My brother also lives on the same street as the newsagents, along with my niece and 2 baby nephews. My niece (3) is at an age now where she is wanting to go to the park and play out in the garden and I'd be lying if I said I feel comfortable about the amount of cars/traffic up and down on that street due to this new prayer room. It worries me and my brother deeply. I strongly plead that you reconsider this as it just does not sit right with me at all. Parking is limited as it is, there is little room and I genuinely worry about the health and safety of not only my family but others in the area. Kind regards Concerned local.
