I do object over the shop becoming a place for prayers. Wakefield Rd is a very busy road with congested traffic. The shop is opposite Tesco Express which already congests Wakefield Rd which is also one of the reasons the shop closed due to permission of Tesco Express opening. Prayers time is usually also at a time when children come out of school so again it will make it extremely busy with cars parked everywhere and a danger to students. Residents fear it will have an impact on noise and parking would become an issue . Earlsheaton as also got a large medical practise on Wakefield Rd so again by having another place for meeting would congest the local area and flow of traffic.
