This area is already an accident waiting to happen, the petrol station is extremely busy, at peak times there are always tail backs from the traffic lights. There is nowhere to park, it is a residential area behind where the shops were, the residents would have even more trouble parking by their properties. It is also a main thoroughfare for school kids leaving Earlsheaton, there is a doctors practice nearby too. elderly people needing to get there safely, the extra traffic and people around the area would make it uncomfortable and I think dangerous around a very very busy road. all in all a very questionable area for a mosque or any place of worship.
