My objections are The dimensions of the proposed plans are far too big. A 6m extension will severely block out light These types of property are semi detached sets of 2 and share the same ground level. The original depth of the property is 8.6 meters and if the planning is granted this would take it to 14.6 meters . The height of the proposed plans of the extension at 5m tall will take it just about in line with the current ridge of the existing roof. This would create a valley compromising any view. I find a extension of this size would be quite imposing from my garden any extension of this size would certainly compromise the value and desirability of my property. Kind regards
