We don't need anymore ugly houses being built . We have enough empty property. It will not "get the economy going " , it is not a sign of a "growing economy " . I'm fully aware that this part of the country has been earmarked for house building from coast to coast . Wakefield/ Ossett is a prime example of this . Now that this government has relaxed the planning laws the houses that do get built will not be affordable housing. I could go on but you know we don't need anymore houses, you know it's wrong , you know it won't get the economy going or help with lack of housing.
