Wild life is a big part of my life as is running, exercising and living a healthy life outside - these are all things I will be unable to do with these new plans that will be put into place. With the increased roads and cars will come a high level of pollution. These plans which are set to be put into place will literally ruin people's lives physically and mentally. Not to mention all the animal habitats which will be destroyed. This is unfair for everyone living in these areas and need to be reassessed.
