I have lived here for nearly 30 years. I've watched builders add the business park. Houses at rams stadium. Now a macdonalds. 55 houses at hanging Heaton and 260 opposite the rams. Now they want to demolish existing dwellings and add 1300 houses more. The village of Shawcross has long gone. No boundary will be left distinguishing it from gawthorpe or Heybeck. All the nature lost from around ancient woodland where I've walked 1,000s of times with various pets and family. Seen fox rabbits hawks and once a deer. It's terrible and it's sad and its church of England greed. Heading towards a recession and builders want to put houses on no one can afford.
