The loss of this agricultural land is of most concern, given the problems with food supplies since the war in the Ukraine began. There is also the loss of the amazing wild life that I see on my walks. The walks that I need and many other people need to help maintain our mental health. These green spaces of woods and fields also help to keep the climate cool. Which is very much a problem today. So many houses will bring so much more traffic and we definitely don't need anymore cars on the roads.
