I bought my house because it overlooked agricultural land and had a view. I wanted to be able to see and photograph wildlife. For over 30 years I have been able to do this. The diversity of wildlife will be lost and the land that the farmer farms on will be lost which means he will lose his living. The dual carriageways is already in an extremely bad state of repair due to the volume of traffic. Any increase in housing etc will further add to the problems with this road. Already there are often queues from Heybeck lane to Shawcross. Further traffic would cause more congestion and gridlocks. The fields at the back also provide walks for both people and their dogs. It greatly improves the mental health of myself and others. This will be lost if the land is developed. The calm and quietness walking across the fields is of great benefit. There is no-where else within walking distance that provides the chance to have such walks. I am very concerned about wildlife habitats that could be lost for herons kingfishers owls wood peckers foxes deer and other wildlife that I have seen on my walks
