| Good morning. The plans for flats at the location suggest that there will be a number of windows overlooking my property. Because of the height of the land and the flats, residents would be able to see directly into my house, probably at both levels and the flats would be very close to my property. The flats will also directly overlook my In addition building a two storey building in that location is likely to block light completely at my property and that of my neighbour. I am concerned for my privacy and for the quality of life in my home if this plan were to go ahead. Kind regards |
