Having looked in detail at the proposed new property I would like to heartily give my support to the project. The design looks sensitive and in keeping to the local area whilst using more or less the same foot print of the existing bungalow. A prestigious house like this can only be a positive to the Little Gomersal area and will increase the ceiling price of houses in the area. I walk my dogs daily through the village and would be happy to see this lovely looking property come to fruition. The fact that somebody is prepared to retain this dwelling as a single property rather than try to build several of the "modern" apartments, which are erected all over the local area, can only be seen as a blessing. Good luck with gaining approval.
