I still have concerns about how close the proposed houses are going to be to my back yard and limit my daylight I also have a lovely view of Castle hill which will be taken away. Looking at the plans there seems to be limited car parking spaces which will results on more cars been parked on the road which is very full already. 22 houses will create more noise, when the businesses on Ruth Street close on an evening the street is very quiet. The houses will be a eyesore which can not be compared to what's there already and will spoil the outlook of the area which is enjoyed by many people.
