> Although I agree the spare land on Westgate is an eyesore I'm not sure that 194 houses is the correct answer, what about the traffic and the doctor services, schools are full already. In a morning and teatime the traffic is that bad I can walk into town quicker than the cars, it takes 10 minutes for me to walk to the post office. I would like to know if there are any arrangements so traffic will be directed in different directions from Westgate.?
