Electricity Act 1989: Overhead Lines (Exemption)(England and Wales) Regulations 2009

It is proposed to undertake the following work that is considered to be exempted from the Electricity Act 1989 by falling within the Overhead Lines (Exemption)(England and Wales) Regulations 2009:

Hind Hill Farm, Scammonden, Huddersfield - HV Diversion Scheme - Replacement and conversion of wooden pole into terminal pole (with 2no. stay wires) to facilitate new underground cable to highway - with a new transformer pole in grassland adjacent to highway boundary (as shown on plan). The re-configuration of the existing network layout at this location is to facilitate the removal of existing overhead line to accommodate development - as shown on the attached plan. Diversion route shown in RED - existing line in BLUE.

Particulars of proposed development to be completed by Applicant:

In order to maintain/improve the security of supplies in the area and remove a section of existing overhead line at this location to accommodate development it will be necessary to install a new transformer pole in the position shown on the attached plan (i.e. relocating the existing Hind Hill Farm 2795 pole mounted substation to this new position). New underground cable will be laid to replace the overhead line that needs to be removed - as shown. To the southern end of this new underground cable the existing pole will be replaced and converted to a terminal pole with 2 no. stay wires.

The Council/Authority is requested to indicate that it has no objection to the work being carried out by returning two copies of this Form with the Certificate completed and signed.

Yours Faithfully
