This location is unsuitable for such a large structure. There are many reasons for this. Firstly the crossroads easily get gridlocked, not only during rush hour during the week but also on a weekend too. The additional traffic would cause a great disruption and with the turning vehicles disturbing the homes opposite as they park on the road which could cause blockages of traffic. Also for pedestrian safety, that is a very busy junction and people may not cross safely before/after shopping. Secondly there is no need for the shop in general, Birstall already has a tesco and a Coop, as well as many valuable independent stores. A sainsburies is unnecessary for local resident's. Thirdly the local area doesnt need stopping and socialising in the carpark late in to the night, which is what will inevitably happen, this is just an unnecessary strain to the local area.
