I'm in support of this business venture. Such a great idea to support the local community and their animals. It brings in new jobs but also enables their customers to go out to work whilst knowing their dogs are in safe hands. As a customer of this service I don't know what I'd do if it closed. I've visited the site once (to look around before signing my dog up) and with it being semi rural location it's perfect for this business. They offer a pick up and drop off service so there is no risk of any extra traffic in the area or disruption to local residents. Statistics show that 34% of households in the UK own a dog therefore this is a much needed service.
