This application should not continue on many levels. Currently the land is for environmental use to improve certain species in the wildness (for example; bees) and should use more properly than building more houses in southern Kirklees, such as allotments and/or tree planting to have the land to remember the late Queen. Not only to perverse for future generations, but to improve the air quality and increase the number of wild species in the area (i.e. butterflies); besides allowing an increase of trafficking, lowering the air quality and not thinking the proper infrastructure (for instance: reservoir, another school, improving current community centres or health centre) that is needed before building furthermore houses.
