In addition to my previous comments, this is just a quick note to make sure that the planning department is aware that Ecoholmes has been requesting that everybody on their mailing list writes letters of support for this development. Having now read through a good number of the comments made in regards to this planning application, it seems obvious to me that a majority of the supporting comments are as a result of this, and that the majority of those are written by people who support the general concept of affordable and sustainable housing, but who most likely have no knowledge of the site itself beyond what they have been told by the developers. Had my opinion been formed without first hand knowledge of the site, and only informed by what Ecoholmes say, I might also have been persuaded by the slick marketing.
