As a customer of the Dancing House for 10 years, I wish to object to the proposed planning application on the basis that not only will it have an effect on the health and wellbeing of my children if they are unable to attend classes as the owner is forced to close the school, but also the loss of another small business that brings jobs to the area, provides health and well-being opportunities for people of all ages, and also gives a community space as a cafe and meeting point. To replace this with housing would mean these facilities are no longer offered in a small community.
