What a fabulous site this looks it's going to be - and a credit to the local area. The facility looks great - blending in perfectly with the surrounding natural habitat and looking set to be nothing but an asset. The area has a lot to offer, anything that will showcase that, increase footfall and improve tourism can only be a good thing. Good luck to the developers: this is just what the area needs. Please do not publish my name, address or any identifying information
