Good evening,

I thought the housing estate always was going to have a supermarket on site so I'm quite surprised its in planning.

I'm for a supermarket on this site. I live at cowlersley and our closest store is aldi milnsbridge but due to horrendous traffic and parked cars I don't go.

I go to the lidl or asda in town. So this would be closer And less travel.

Can you also take into consideration there is a huge housing estate to be built at standard fireworks site so this would also be beneficial for these homes.
