They have on occasions. She can't get into the local shop because the Mosque users block all access and when you tell to move they start swearing and questioning where should we park? It's not everyone else's fault there is no parking. Every house has about 4 cars each where should we all park? These mosque users come from all over they are not even local and they create problems for all of us why? They don't care that they are doing anything wrong. You should have refused this a long time Ago. Refuse refuse refuse
