

The planning approval requires 3no parking spaces. The width of the site precludes anything other than hardsurfacing to create sufficient space? There is no room for soft landscaping.

The site was previously garden area and the existing topsoil will be scraped and stored on site. There should be sufficient for the landscaped areas so no topsoil will be imported.