After weeks of noise and a very large fire, which I am told was a tree that has been felled which i have been told that in the plans it said no trees will be felled.I feel that i must make comment. I always thought that construction was not meat to start until after eight am(not seven thirty). And this goes on every day including the weekend ! when working people are trying to lay in etc. For people that are at home all day the constant drone of machinery is very annoying. The other thing is that we had no consultation in this matter and our privacy is being compromised. I believe that this needs looking into by the planning department as soon as possible.
