Shepley is a relatively small rural village with a limited capacity of facilities.The additional number of residents and vehicles created by this development will have a negative impact on existing residents. The extra vehicular traffic on Marsh Lane would only add to the current problems we experience. There would no doubt be increased roadside parking, causing increased risk for pedestrians of road traffic accidents. The number of proposed new dwellings only shows that the land developers are attempting to maximise profits at an environmental cost to the village. These plans should be refused or at least reviewed, and the number of properties reduced to z more realistic and acceptable number.
