I strongly object to the continuing encroachment on our once rural villages. The Green belt no longer exists! Shelley and Shepley are now one urban sprawl, Skelmanthorpe and Denby Dale are burgeoning vast New Build estates in every direction and now Stocksmoor advances on to ancient woodland. Every adjacent field, to every village is becoming fair game to Kirklees planning. Where do you draw the line? One wonders the motivation, when so many 'less profitable' brown field sites are left derelict, in the ever declining Huddersfield town. Are planning decisions based on the thickness of a brown envelope behind closed doors... In many regards, people who are unfortunate enough to fall into the catchment of Kirklees, have no faith in their Council.
