For years now I've past the building and thought I hope someone takes an interest and preserves it for future generations to appreciate. From what I can see the plans look fantastic and a real credit to whoever commissioned them bring a building up to date whilst maintaining its original character rather than knocking it down and building new which often is easier and cheaper. Or worse turning into another barbers or bed factory. I say to the new owner, welcome to the village and thanks for creating jobs and spending what will probably amount to tens of thousands on local buildings no doubt employing local trades people.
