I frequently visit Marsden in the evenings and at weekends. The village has character but is never rowdy in the evenings so having a new, unique restaurant on the high street will only add to the village's charm and success. I'm disappointed that the business is required to close at 6pm because it means I'm unlikely to be able to visit. I imagine this will be true of many others who work regular hours so it will unfairly disadvantage the Oi establishment. Given that there are several other businesses on the same stretch of the street that already have late licenses and have kitchens open after 6pm it seems to be very inconsistent to penalise this business unfairly due to a neighbour's complaints.
