Oi Dumplings are bringing something new to Marsden's centre that goes beyond their food offering. They have a well known and well respected brand which brings much needed trade into Marsden. They have already improved the look of the high street with what appears to be a significant investment into the building. It would be a huge shame to penalise Oi Dumplings with highly restrictive opening hours, particularly when other businesses, directly opposite and adjacent are allowed to open way beyond 6pm. Singling out a new, small business (the owners of which are also residents) in this economic climate seems incredibly unjust.
