1. The opportunity for the village to have another beautiful restaurant is an incredible opportunity for the ever-growing marsden community. 2. It makes no sense that all other local bars and restaurants are able to open for "normal" sittings, but Oi Dumplings are not. To show how detrimental that is for both local residents that have looked forward to this new restaurant, but also to the business itself, for anyone that works during the day, there is no opportunity to go. This place could be a fantastic addition to the evergrowing and evolving village and places like this should be supported and encouraged.
